

I have participated in the Indiana Telephone Privacy Act since it's beginning. You can not believe what a relief it is to come home at night and not have repeated telephone calls from companies I have never heard of, have no interest in doing business with and/or that call repeatedly. It is unfair for these companies (Banks) to be able to invade MY privacy. Life is stressful enough, please help me maintain some semblance of peace & quiet in my household. Thank you!